

I am an XM Satellite Radio subscriber, and I respectfully (albeit strongly) urge you to reject the NAB's petition 04-160. I am employed as an electric utility line crew foreman, and, as you may imagine, accurate weather reports are crucial to myself and my crew. Before satellite radio, weather reports in our area via conventional radio were sketchy at best and frequently inaccurate. Thanks to XM, this has changed making our job safer.